LOCAL MATTERS. JOB WORK .- We have now completed our office ALL KINDS OF JOB WORK, and we most respectfully ask the patronage of our friends.

POST OFFICE, CHARLESTON, S. C., July 6, 1867. After to-day the mails for Northeastern Railroad will close at 8 o'clock A.M., and to-day and afterwards they are expected to reach the Railroad "Station" at 2:80 o'clock P.M., and to be ready for delivery at this office at 3:30 o'clock P.M., except on Sunday, when the hour will be from 6 P.M. to 7 P.M., until further notice.

STANLEY G. TROTT, P. M.

POSTOFFICE NOTICE. - An evening mail for Augusta and Savannah, and for distribution beyond those offices, will close daily at the Postoffice at half-past 6 o'clock.

BRICKS! BRY 31-We direct attention to the auction advertisement of Messrs. MILLIGAN & Son. They will sell to-morrow bricks of a superior quality, and builders and contractors should be on hand to secure bargains.

PERSONAL .- Among the passengers on the Manhattan on last Saturday, was Mrs. Sickles, the mother of the District Commander. In compliment to her the Post Band was ordered to the wharf, and performed several pieces prior to the departure of the boat.

THE OLD GUARD for August has been received. Besides the story of Mr. SIMMS and JOHN ESTEN COOKE's battle sketch, it has a variety of articles. One, entitled "The South and Her Faltering Men," by the editor, will attract general attention. "The Basis of American Civilization," by Dr. VAN EVERE, is one of the best from his pen. There is a good selection of other articles, which, with Editor's and Book Tables, make up a very good number. Subscribers to The Old Guard for the rest of the year get a steel plate portrait of JACKson or Lazz.

SUDDEN DRATH .- It is not often that we are called upon to feel that "in midst of life we are in death," but cases do occur when the suddenness of the shock takes all by surprise, and the truth of the scripture saying is brought home to every heart. The exposure to the heat of the sun has in many cases resulted fatally, but it is seldom that the reaper Death gathers in his victims without some premonitory warning. A young lady of this city, the daughter of a prominent merchant, attended church yesterday morning, but before night her life had flown, and a household was plunged in mourning. THROUGH FREIGHTS.—Since the South Carolin

Railroad Company has re-established its night trains the city has been enabled to communicate promptly with the interior, and country merchants who purchase goods in New York can receive them in a few hours after they are landed at the wharf. The Augusta Daily Press of the 21st says that "we were shown a letter yesterday from Gen. Tige An-DEBSON, agent of the Georgia Railroad at Atlanta to S. K. JOHNSON, Master of Transportation of the Georgia Railroad, in this city, in which he says 'that Messrs. GARRETT & BRO., of Atlanta, received goods by train on Thursday at 6:10 P. M. from New York, by steamer. Bill of Lading, Invoice, and letter from shippers all dated July 15th. This makes three days. What think you of that? The goods came by the steamer Saragossa, via THE ANNAMESSIC FREIGHT LINE. - In the new ers of reconstruction our people have awoke to the necessity of several enterprises that were formerly not considered important. Among these is the quick delivery and transportation of freight from one point to another; and it has become a matter of pride with the railroad authorities to facilitate this movement by every means in their power., A grand combination of the leading railroads be tween this city and Northern points has recently been formed, by which freight is delivered in an duced rates. This line has been called the Annaic. and connects the different Northern cities rieston. Portsmouth, Boston, New York, and the intermediate cities are now but a few hours travel from this place; and as the schedule of the different roads conform, there are no vexaknown in this city, is the General Agent for this line, and is here to present the claims of the line to the public. The Annamessic Line is a new enterprise, but under the management of Mr. Woon-WARD there can be no doubt of its success.

THE RAILBOAD CONTROVERSY .- The Orangeburg News says: On Wednesday last, an application was made to his Honor Judge GLOVEB for a writ of certiorari against the City council of Columbia. It seems that the City Council interfered in the dispute existing between the South Carolina R. R. Company, and the Hamburg and Columbia R. R. Company; and under the plea of abating a nui- was discovered and compelled to take refuge unsance, removed an engine on the South Carolina B. R. track, at the point where the other road desired to cross. The spot happened to be in the middle of "Rice Street," one of the imaginary highways of Columbia, known only by being laid down as such on a map of the City, but which has never been opened for travel as such.

The case of the petitioners was ably advocated by Hon. Jos. D. Pors; while with equal ability the 'City Council were represented by Hon. E. J. ARTHUR, (both gentlemen of the Columbia bar), who certainly made several very strong points in favor of the municipal authorities of the Capital. His Honor Judge GLOVER reserved his decision. This is an off-shoot from the celebrated rai road case now pending in chancery between the rival

CHANGE OF LOCATION. - MOSSIES. RISLEY & CREIGH-TON, on last Saturday, celebrated the occupation of their new store on East Bay, south of Unity alley, by a generous collation, to which the business fraternity received carte blanche invitations. Two tables were spread with the good things of this life, and the flow of spirits was a convincing proof that Order No. 32 had not affected their sup ply. The feast was prepared under the supervision of an old Charleston caterer, Tully, and was a pleasing combination of liquids and solids.

Mesers. RISLEY & CREIGHTON- have made a move in the right direction, and the change in their base argues continued prosperity. East Bay is now rapidly losing its deserted appearance, and in a short time a vacant store will be a novel sight. It was a knowledge of this fact that induced Mr. P. S. Coogan, the present owner of the store, to erect so commodious a building. The large West India trade done by Messrs. R. & C. compelled them to store their bulky goods on a wharf, and the change from their old stand was necessitated on this account. The new establishment is three stories in height, and has ample room for storing heavy goods, and we trust that the business of the city will warrant Messrs. RISLEY & CREIGHTON in always keeping it well stocked with West India

DEATH OF MR. M. TRACY .- The Augusta Chroni-

The above melancholy announcement is copied from the Charleston Daily News of the 18th, and will be read with profound sorrow wherever he was known. The writer of this feeble tribute was late a co-laborer with the decessed in the office of the NEWS-as also in the office of the Mercury many years ago-and if any man south of Mason and Dixon's line knew another, he thinks he knew him who is the subject of these lines, and he can truly say no more impartial or upright man ever presided over a printing office. That he was abundantly able to fill such a position no reader of the Mercury, in its ante-bellum days, or of the in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no hum-News, of later days, will deny. As a foreman he was acceptable to the craft—as a printer respected for his capability—as a man his opinions had weight with all who knew him-as a presiding officer distinguished as a citizen quiet and unpretending-as a friend strong in his attachmentas a husband kind and affectionate—as a neighbor sbove reproach.

He was not faultless. Who is? Perfe-tion attaches not to our nature, and our poor humanity, while it may sometimes greatly err, always hopes and strives to do right. Such was the case with our friend. He had a heart too large for his little body, and if, at times, in his haste, he wounded the feelings of another, he was most prompt in making reparation. This I have known him to do frequently, not only with myself but others whose misfortune it was to suffer the ills inseparably connected with a daily newspaper printing establishment. But affliction came upon him, and he bore all with becoming meekness. "Full of repentance methonal meditations, tears and sorrows, Continual meditations, texts and sofrows, He gave his honors to the world again, His blessed part to heaven, and slept in peace,"

A MERCIFUL MAN IS MERCIFUL TO HIS BEAST .-We were struck with the truth of this assertion in noticing, in our daily rambles, the horse of a dray- STIMULANTS INDISPENSABLE AS MEDIman, whose head had been protected from the sun's rays by a large wet sponge which was attached to the head stall. IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.—The fair sex need few hints from any one, and especially from the so-called lords of creation, but we venture to call their attention to the advertisement of Messrs STOLL. WEBB & Co., in another column. These gentlemen know that the best antidote for the dullness of the times is to have a complete stock of goods, and to sell them at the lowest rates. The Charleston House has a long-established reputation to sustain, and the proprietors are determined not to be affected by the weather or the times, but are prepared to offer inducements to the public that will make them forget the depres sion in the money market and invest their spare change. One of the greatest pleasures in this life, espe cially to the ladies, is the time spent in shopping, but this pleasure is enhanced when there is a positive knowledge that bargains will be secured. The goods offered by Messrs. STOLL, WEBB & Co. have een selected with care, and are the best that could be procured. They have endeavored to accommo date the price to the times, and are satisfied that their stock, in quantity, quality and variety, is hard to be beat. The summer season has barely commenced, and those who have not completed their dry goods investments would do well to give the Charleston House a call, and they will leave their money behind them, but obtain more than an Verdict of the Faculty.

The most distinguished physicians in the United State have recently been placed on the witness stand, and valuable medicinal agents. This decision of the faculty refers especially to medicated atimulants, of which the purest and the best at present known is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Its basis is the alcoholic principle of the finest rye grown in the United States, and its of the world, and all noted in the countries to which they are indigenous for their powerful sanstive proper ties. As an invigorant and tonic, the value of the Bitters can scarcely be overrated. Hence its extraordinary effect in fever and ague and intermittents and remittents of every type. Its anti-bilious properties are marvellous. Persons of bilious habit, by taking a small quantity once or twice a day, may completely change their constitutional tendency to liver disease, and escape all the unpleasant consequences which arise either from the undue sensitiveness or the unnatural torpidity of the thoroughly and in a very short space of time by small doses of this wholesome regular, taken night and morning; and for all the disorders which are superinanimal matter in the streets of cities, or the miasma of swampy districts: it is, when taken as a protective and GENTLEMEN: I used, during the past season, one of 'Ingersoll's Portable Cotton Presses," purchased of you last exptember. I have always been piculated in favor of the "Screw Press," and nothing but dire necessity induced me to try any other. I take pleasure, however, in adding my testimony in favor of its entire adaptation to the wants of a cotton plantation. It has surpassed my most sanguine expectations. I have packed with but two hands, yet I prefer four—two at each lever. My bales all weighed over 500 bs. The first lot I sent to market averaged 5621 s. My impression is that 500 bs. is about the capacity of the Press, and a greater number of pounds subject the follow-block to too much risk, unless the sides of the cotton box was increased. It would add greatly to the value of the Press if the cotton box was ten inches longer. In haste, I am, very respectfully, Your obedient servan', &c., B. W. LAWTON, P. S. GENTLEMEN: I have just received your letter of February 14th—upon my return to this place, after an absence of two months—und this reply may be too late for your "Descriptive Circular of Ingersoll's Cotton Press."

Messra Little & Marshalt:

The Press I used in packing my cotton last year worked admirably, packing, with ease from 500 to 525 lbs. With good active hands to work it, I am satisfied that from eighteen to twenty bates might readily be nacked in a day. The Press I used in packing my cotton last year worked admirably, packing, with ease from 500 to 625 lbs. This Pr ss combines the advantages of lightness, and consequent portability and simplicity (being easily managed b, any one of ordinary intelligence). Great compressing force, with little motive power, and "last, but not least," it is worked entirely by hand, thus saving for the farm horses the hard labor imposed upon them by the use of the ordinary "screw."
